

Barrel and Can Heater

- In a wide selection of fields of industry mentioned below;

- * Production
- * Chemistry
- * Dye (paint) industry
- * Polyester
- * Construction

- It is a flexible and heat controlled heater which is produced in order to provide a definite heat and to keep this heat for the barrels and cans needed seriously in many areas.
- As it is seen in the picture, flexible heater is stowed on the upper side of the barrel by attachment.
- Electronic control mechanism located on the heater in order to keep the heat at desired degree.
- Led heater located on the box indicates energy support by lighting when it operates.
- In the subject of heat control, alternatives are offered according to needs.

- It is produced with 25 cm width, because this dimension is sufficient.
- According to needs wider production is possible.
- In addition another convenience is the possibility of removing it by rolling when it is not used.

